Status of Seawolf (SSN 21): At Home Port

Seawolf Returns from Deployment

After successfully completing her mission, the USS Seawolf returned to her homeport in December. This was earlier than expected, and certainly welcome news for her crew and families as they were able to spend the Holiday Season together at home.

In what is becoming a tradition, the Seawolf Submarine Association (SSA) provided the "First Night Duty Crew Dinner" upon their return, providing Subway sandwiches and a variety of sides for all crew members standing watch that first night home. Below are some photos from their return.

Welcome Home Boxes provided for single sailors

The SSA provided needed supplies to the Seawolf FRG in order to create Welcome Home Boxes for all Seawolf single sailors. The boxes included laundry detergent, snacks, toiletries, and other items for the sailors to enjoy. They were a big hit and much appreciated.

Seawolf Fall Family Activities

The Seawolf Submarine Association supported a number of activities for Seawolf families this past Fall. On a nice Fall afternoon In October, we sponsored a Seawolf Kids Pumpkin Painting Party at a local farm. The kids enjoyed decorating their pumpkins in anticipation of Thanksgiving.

Then for Thanksgiving dinner, the SSA was proud to provide turkeys for 16 Seawolf families.

Seawolf Kid's Party

After spending some quality time with their families over the Holiday Season, the SSA and Seawolf FRG hosted a Kid's Post-Holiday Party at the local bowling alley in January. The SSA provided food and appropriate gifts for all Seawolf kids in attendance. According to Seawolf FRG President Heidi Adkins, "Thank you so much! All the kids loved the presents. Especially the big kids with legos! It was a blast! Thank you to the sub club!"
